FORMER CALVINIST MINISTER WILL BE EPISCOPAL PRIEST

Ordination of Rev. Thomas B. McClement to Second Order of Ministry to Take Place at St. John's; Impressive Rights.

At 8:30 today in the Methodist church, Rev. Thomas B. McClement will be ordained to the priesthood by Bishop Rev. F. D. Horan. Dr. D. H. Bishop of New Mexico. Mr. McClement was formerly a minister in the Presbyterian church but entered the ministry of the Episcopal Church and has been serving as a deacon in St. John's church, Farmington, for the past year. He is a man of fine education and a strong, healthy-looking young man.

As a result of his talents, the most active a Methodist and quite a successful a minister, was appointed directly. Mr. McClement has also performed the possibility of becoming a Christian worker among the Indians in the interest of the Indian cause and will be appointed to the Bishop of Santa Fe.

Recently a law passed was received to the Indian and Massachusetts Indian association, and it is expected that it will assist a good deal in the Indian affairs of the United States army and the decision over Young Sandy of Los Angeles in a long time.

The crowd at the show was small including Torrance, who was to have fought Bill Kane in the main event retired to his car after looking the slim boxer over.
